impact week

on HCC Campus
SPONSORED BY LUFTHANSA GROUP

Lufthansa Impact Week is a global innovation program that promotes entrepreneurship skill progression in developing economies by establishing sustainable business models using Design Thinking.

HCC will be the proud host of this year's edition of the program from 5th to 13th October, 2022. A team of 30 coaches from Europe will be present on HCC campus to conduct hands-on training for 25 HCC faculty and 110 students on how to use Design Thinking Methodology to resolve social/environmental problems.

Sponsored by Churches of Christ under the Oversight of the Elders of the Nsawam Road congregation, Accra-Ghana

VISIT BY THE BILLS

Dr. Steve and Mrs. Margaret Bills - parents of Dr. Nathan Bills (HCC Liaison to International Partners) visited the HCC Campus for ten (10) days. They interacted with staff, faculty and student entrepreneurs of HCC.

GTEC VISITS

The Ghana Tertiary Education Commission (GTEC) visited the HCC Campus to assess the readiness of HCC to offer 12 New Degree Programmes that were submitted to the Commission for accreditation. The new programmes comprise of 4 Masters, 7 Undergraduate and 1 Diploma programme.

DEDICATION OF HCC BUILDINGS

Mr. Kwasi Ofori Nimoh & Mrs. Comfort Nimoh

The Nimoh Media Centre will house the Truth TV (which currently reaches 5 million homes and 23 countries in West and Central Africa) and in the not too distant future, will also house the HCC Radio and a printing press.

Dr. Steve Bills & Mrs. Margaret Bills

The Farmington House is a 17-bedroom faculty guest house which also provides space for small group studies and prayer meetings.

Dr. Douglas Boateng & Mrs. Margaret Boateng

The Boateng Building is a multi-purpose building which provides lecture rooms, offices, a conference room, a state-of-the-art computer lab as well as an auditorium and a cafeteria. The first floor would house HCC's Nursing department while the second floor would house the School of Graduate Studies and Research – both of which will be rolled out soon.

Other ongoing building construction projects would be unveiled and dedicated upon completion.
